Contacts

- Research: Visit the Truworths website or other reliable sources to gather information about their internship program. Learn about the eligibility criteria, application process, and any specific requirements or documents needed.
- Prepare your Application: Update your resume/CV to highlight your relevant skills, education, and experiences. Tailor your resume to showcase your interest in the retail industry and any relevant coursework or projects you have completed. Craft a compelling cover letter expressing your enthusiasm for the internship and why you believe you would be a valuable addition to Truworths.
- Submitting the Application: Depending on the application process specified by Truworths, you may need to apply online through their official website or submit your application via email. Ensure that you follow the instructions provided and submit all required documents, including your resume/CV and cover letter.
- Follow-up: After submitting your application, consider following up with Truworths to confirm that they have received your application and express your continued interest in the internship opportunity. However, be mindful of their specified communication channels and be patient for a response.
- Interviews and Assessment: If your application is shortlisted, you may be invited for an interview or other assessment activities. Prepare for the interview by researching Truworths and familiarizing yourself with their products, values, and company culture. Be ready to discuss your skills, experiences, and why you are interested in the internship.
- Selection and Offer: If you successfully pass the interview and assessment stage, Truworths will notify you about their decision. If you are selected, they will provide you with an internship offer, which will include details about the duration, start date, compensation (if applicable), and any additional requirements or paperwork.

- Acceptance and Onboarding: Review the internship offer thoroughly and accept it formally by following the instructions provided. Coordinate with Truworths regarding any onboarding or orientation procedures you may need to complete before starting your internship.
